Thursday, January 16. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Rome, January 1.

TH O' the Majority of the Congregation of Cardinals and Prelates which the 23d of last Month examin'd the double Election to the Bishoprick of Munster, gave their Voices for the Bishop of Paderborn; yet the Pope has not given his Decree upon that Affair, and 'tis talk'd it will be canvass'd agen in a Consistory.

The Advices from Italy of the 8th of January, say the Imperial Commissaries had demanded of the City of Ferrara 16000 Pistoles a Month Contribution for Quarters, and a like Sum of the City of Bologna: Whereupon the Legate has dispatch'd an Express to Rome.

From the Amst. Cour. and Gaz. dated Jan. 20 and 21.

Turin, Jan. 1. The 24th of last Month the Princess Louisa of Soissons, Sister of Prince Eugene of Savoy, arriv'd here, and was receiv'd with great Respect by her Nephews and Nieces; she was conducted to the Lodgings fitted up for her in the Prince of Carignan's Palace; whence she went to the Court, to make a Visit to his Royal Highness our Duke, who welcom'd her on her Arrival with great Expressions of Affection and Esteem. The 25th the Count of Castel-barco the Imperial Minister, went with 2 Coaches and a great Retinue to Court; and thence accompanied his Royal Highness to the Cathedral of St. John, where the Colours and Standards taken from the Enemy are hung up.

Turin, Jan. 5. The Count of Castel-barco, his Imperial Majesty's Envoy extraordinary, has had his publick Audiences of his Royal Highness and Family; and the 7th Instant, Mr. Cherwind her Majesty of Great Britain's Envoy extraordinay, is to have his. Prince Eugene of Savoy is expected here the 10th or 12th Instant.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 21.

Letters from Francfort of the 16th Instant import, that the French cause a great Quantity of Bread to be bak'd at Thionville, Metz, and Saarlouis, for the Troops they expect to come up to Alsace from Flanders; that they give out the Marshal de Villars is to return to Strasbourg from the French Court by the Middle of February; that the Elector of Bavaria is expected there from the Netherlands, with his own Troops and those of Spain; and that their Design is to begin the Campaign very early in Germany, and to penetrate to Bavaria.

From Brussels of the 17th 'tis advis'd, that the French have perfected Part of the Lines they began this Winter, that is to say from Maubeuge to Villers, and along the little River Trouille to Mons; and are working on the remaining Part along the River Haine: That they are establishing great Magazines of Provisions and Forrage: That it was rumour'd they design to send up all the Spanish Troops to the Rhine; and that the Elector of Bavaria will march up thither in Person, with his own Troops, in hopes to make a great Diversion and open himself a Passage to Bavaria.

Hague, Jan. 21. King Augustus's Minister here, has receiv'd Order from his Master to desire the States to interpose their good Offices with the King of Sweden, that the People of Saxony which are too much oppress'd may have some Relief. The President for the Week of the Council of State, to whom the said Minister deliver'd himself verbally on this Subject, excus'd himself with all Civility from making a Report to the Council of what was said to him, alledging the States could not well intermeddle in such Affairs. Hereupon 'tis expected the said Minister will present a Memorial in Form to the States. As for the Troops offer'd by his Master, there is Ground to believe England and Holland will agree to take them into their Service. The D. of Wirtemberg is desirous to succeed P. Lewis of Baden in the Command of the Army of the Empire: And his Minister who very lately went over to England, is suppos'd to have Orders to solicit that Court in his Favour: 'Tis generally allow'd that the Duke of Wirtemberg has great and heroical personal Qualities, but 'tis apprehended there are many Obstacles to the Advancement he seeks: The principal are, the Measures that have been already taken to procure that Command for Prince Eugene of Savoy; which Affair has been very maturely weigh'd here, and the States after some private Conferences with the Ministers of England and Triers, have written about it to the Imperial Court. It being probable there will be less Difficulty made of it by that Court, than by Prince Eugene himself, General Dopf has been sent for from Macstricht to receive Instructions for going to his Highness to perswade him to accept of the Command in Question: General Dopf arriv'd here Yesterday; and 'tis talk'd he is to contrive to meet Prince Eugene in his Way from Italy to Vienna. It being apprehended that Prince will not embarras himself with the Command on the Rhine, because there never are Magazines, Artillery, nor Ammunition, provided there as they ought; Endeavours will effectually be us'd to make him easy on that Head. Four of the Circles of the Empire being to assemble at Hailbron the last Day of this Month, the Count de Rechteren is nominated to go thither, to endeavour to rouse the Empire out of their Supineness: He is chosen for this Office, not only for the Sake of his Capacity, but because he is well known throughout those Circles, and in the Courts of the Princes that are Members of them. Advice is come from Rome, that the Partisans of the Bishop of Osnabrug having mov'd the Pope to refer the disputed Election of Munster to a 2d Congregation, his Holyness has express'd himself unwilling to comply with their Request, having been inform'd it would be a thing without Example: In the mean time the Imperialists make high Demands on the Ecclesiastical Territories. Letters from France of the 17th Instant, tell us it was own'd at Court they had Advice from Spain, that a general Officer had been drawn into an Ambush in Arragon by the Miquelets, who kill'd 1200 of his Men.

Plymouth, Jan. 12. This Evening came in about 12 Coasters from the Eastward, for this Place and Falmouth. A few Leagues to the Eastward of this Place they parted from Admiral Dilks; who is gone for Torbay with the Outward bound Fleet.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Wednesday Jan. 3. It being moved that the 4 Protests given in in the former Sederunt by the Duke of Atholl, the Earl of Buchan, George Lockhart of Carnwarth and Walter Stewart, ought not to be insert in the Minutes, nor to be printed; after some reasoning thereon, the Earl of Marchmont gave in a Protestation against the said 4 Protests, and took Instruments thereupon, and adhered thereto; and after long reasoning thereon, the further debate was adjourn'd till next Sederunt of Parliament. Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till to Morrow.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Thursday Jan. 9. The debate mentioned in the Minutes of the last Sederunt was resumed, in Relation to the 4 Protestations given in the 7th Instant by the Duke of Atholl, the Earl of Buchan, George Lockhart of Carnwarth, and Walter Stewart; and in Relation to another Protestation against the same, given in the last Sederunt by the Earl of Marchmont. And after reasoning, the Lord Balmerino gave in a Protest against that given in the former Sederunt by the Earl of Marchmont, and took Instruments thereupon and adhered thereto: And after some further debate it was agreed, that none of the said Protests be insert at Length in the Minutes, or printed, but that they be all recorded and insert in the Records of Parliament. Then the 3d Paragraph of the 22d Article of Union beginning thus, And that if Her Majesty on or before the first Day of May next, &c. And ending with these Words, And that Parliament may continue for such Time only as the present Parliament of England might have continued if the Union of the two Kingdoms had not been made, unless sooner dissolved by Her Majesty, was read; and after reasoning thereon, it was moved to add the following Clause thereto, viz. And that the said Parliament of Great-Britain shall meet and sit once in 3 Years at least in that Part of Great-Britain now called Scotland. And after further debate, there were 2 States of a Vote offered, the first in these Terms, Approve the 3d Paragraph of the 22d Article or not, and the second in these Terms, Add the above Clause or not; and after reasoning which should be the State of the Vote, it was put to the Vote first or second. And it was agreed that the Members Votes shall be marked, and that the List of their Names as they vote be printed and recorded; and the Lord Chancellor was allowed to have his Name printed and recorded as a Voter for the first State, and if that shall carry as voting among the Approvers; then the Vote was put first or second, and it carried first; thereafter the Vote was put, approve of the 3d Paragraph of the 22d Article or not, and it carried approve. Then the rest of the 22d Article of Union was read; and after some reasoning and reading of the Oaths to which it relates, an Overture was given in for an Additional Clause for explaining the Word Limitation mention'd in the Oath appointed to be taken by Stat. 13. W. 3d. Cap. 6. And an Overture was given in, for exempting Persons in any Office or Employment in Scotland from taking the Oath of Abjuration mentioned in the said Article. And a 3d Overture for a Clause, That so long as the Act appointing a sacramental Test shall continue in Force in England, all Persons in publick Trust within the Limits of Scotland shall swear and sign a Formula thereto subjoin'd in Manner and under the Penalties therein mentioned. And after reading the said 3 Overtures and reasoning thereon, a Vote was stated, approve of the 22d Article of Union as explain'd or not. But before voting it was agreed, that notwithstanding of the said Vote, and that the Article shall be thereby approved, it shall nevertheless be inquire and free thereafter to proceed on the saids Overtures next Sederunt of Parliament, and to the Parliament to give their Sentiments thereon. And it being thereupon moved to delay the Vote for approving the Article till next Sederunt, a previous Vote was stated, proceed or delay; and it carried proceed: Then the Vote was stated approve or not; but before voting it was agreed, that the Members Votes be marked, and that the List of their Names as they vote be printed and recorded, and the Lord Chancellor was allowed to have his Name printed and recorded as an Approver. Thereafter the Vote was put, approve the 22d Article as explain'd, and it carried approve by 16. Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till to Morrow.
